

CIVIL RIGHTS

PROTESTS

A cemetery with fake tombstones with the names of the black people who died because of the police → a war cemetery

Black Lives Matter Movement: protests against racial injustice → 5th anniversary

Ecologist activists are throwing soup on one of the Sunflowers → works of art are more precious than human lives

Just Stop Oil: an environmentalist organisation which wants to stop the oil industry with unpopular actions (throwing soup, breaking windows, gkuing to the ground) → considered as a terrorist organisation by the UK

A mural by Banksy: a judge is hitting a protester on the ground with his hammer

The Crime and Policing Bill: restrictions on who is allowed to demonstrate and how. Some oraganisations are declared terrorist organisations (Just Stop Oil, Palestine Action) and are not allowed to demonstrate

People dressed as kings are protesting against the abuse of power of the American PDT

7 million people demonstrated in October against DT's policies which led to the government shutdown. People think he acts like a king, which goes against the main purpose of the foundation of America: to be free from absolutism

Prince Andrew has lost his titles, of Duke of York and Knight of the Garter → the decison comes from the Kling

Prince Andrew was accused of sexual assault by a woman when she was a minor, when he attended "parties fines" organised by sexual offender Jeffrey Epstein. The Epistein files are going to be released in the USA and may incriminate DT and Bill Clinton
